

WELCOME TO INC.'S BEST WORKPLACES

Congratulations on being recognized on Inc.'s 4th annual Best Workplaces list! The competition this year was fiercer than ever, with thousands of companies agreeing to have their employees surveyed to learn who is most satisfied.

Your company comes out as one of the very best, which is testament to the great corporate culture that you and your team have built. In these days of a tight labor market, finding and keeping the right workers is more critical than ever, and your accomplishments help set a standard that millions of others can learn from.

You will find your company's name listed in the June issue of Inc. magazine, and on Inc.com. We hope you will spread the good news to your employees, customers and stake holders. Congratulations again!

Sincerely,

James Ledbetter
